SANTA SPOTTED IN THE SORTING OFFICE, TYPING UP THE NAUGHTY LIST!

SCOUNDRELS' SECRETS EXPOSED:

CAHOOTS NETWORK EXPANDS WITH HIDDEN BOROUGH YARDS BAR!

Unusual activity has been reported at a former post office beneath the railway arches of Borough Yards, where a notorious band of Cahoots scoundrels is suspected of sorting rather more than the afternoon mail.

Witnesses describe an innocent-looking counter watched over by a sharp-eyed lookout. Beyond it, a covert passage is said to lead to back rooms alive with swinging tunes, clinking glasses and suspiciously high spirits.

Reports suggest the postal machinery has also been commandeered, with cocktails travelling through pneumatic tubes at a pace rarely associated with the ordinary post. Quite who authorised this change of service remains unclear.

When approached by this newspaper, those behind the counter declined to comment. One was, however, overheard promising another "first-class delivery" before promptly disappearing with a cocktail.

Investigations continue. Correspondents have volunteered to return this evening.
